

CITY NEWS

The will of Alexander H. Hall, late of Shelburne, was proved in probate court Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Parent are the parents of a daughter, born Monday, May 29.

A son was born Sunday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest N. Eldred of 41 Loomis street.

A daughter, Fredericka Helen, was born Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Richard of 4 Pine street. Mrs. Richard was formerly Miss Sadie Lyon.

Franklin Fisher, a former Essex Junction newspaper man, now living in Montclair, N. J., has bought the Ridgebrook, N. J., News, a weekly paper.

Word has been received from Ottawa of the death of Edward A. Bliss, formerly of this city, and recently in His Majesty's service in England. He leaves a wife and two children.

Conductor Frank Shinnville of the Burlington and Lamoille road made his first trip yesterday after having been confined for two months by a severe illness with bronchial pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rand of Isle La Motte are the parents of a son, born Monday at the Mary Fletcher hospital. Mrs. Rand was formerly Miss Irene Jerome of this city.

The marriage of Miss Hazel M. Gates of this city and Harrison J. Patridge of Minneapolis, Minn., will take place at Miss Gates' home in this city on the evening of Wednesday, June 14.

The elementary schools of the city will close for the year on Friday, the final examinations being now in progress. The grammar and high schools will end the school year on June 16.

Charles M. Gouldy has secured the general agency for the Home Life Insurance company, with office in the Masonic temple. Mr. Gouldy is a former resident of Burlington and is well known in Vermont.

In probate court Tuesday J. H. Morton of Richmond was appointed administrator of the estate of Antonio Lopez, late of Richmond, with P. H. Sudarsky and Arthur Bessette, commissioners and appraisers.

In probate court Friday a license was granted to sell real estate in the estate of Amelia DeForge, late of Winoski. A decree was issued in the estate of William Millington, late of this city. E. R. Taft has been appointed administrator of the estate of Emeline S. Taft, late of Essex.

In probate court yesterday Irving H. Deyette of Shelburne was appointed administrator cum testamento annexo of the estate of Alexander H. Hall, late of Shelburne, with George N. Roberts and C. P. Van Vleet of that village commissioners.

The divorce case of Ethel M. Barnes of Essex against Ernest M. Howard was filed at the probate court clerk of county court yesterday. The petition sets up intolerable severity, refusal to support and desertion, and the petitioner asks for the custody of two minor children.

The case of S. H. Miller of the Green Mountain Junk company of this city against August and John Fenger of the firm of August Fenger & Co. of Cincinnati, Ohio, was filed at the office of the clerk of county court Friday. It is a contract case involving $900. M. G. Leary of this city is attorney for Mr. Miller.

L. E. Kittell has resigned his position as steward of the club rooms of the Federal order of Eagles and has been appointed assistant state deputy by the head council, Modern Order of Woodmen. He will make his headquarters in Burlington but will have jurisdiction throughout Vermont, particularly Chittenden county.

The Drury Brick & Tile company of Essex Junction received a rush order by wire Saturday evening for 200,000 bricks. They were prepared and the company had 100,000 under way by Tuesday morning and would have shipped the balance the following day which they had not been afraid such quantity would tax the facilities of the consignee.

The annual meeting of the Altar Guild of St. Paul's church was held Thursday afternoon at three o'clock at the parish house. The following officers were elected: Directress, Deaconess Louisa; vice-directress, Miss Jennie E. Lattin; secretary, Miss Laura Wade; treasurer, Miss Lattin. The deaconess gave a summary of the year's work. Tea was served.

The receipts at the local postoffice the last month were larger than in any other May in the history of the office. The revenue receipts amounted to $208.08, which is $250 larger than in any previous month. The postal receipts were $122.25 as against $105 for the same month last year, which was the largest May month in the history of the office.

At a recent meeting of the Crystal Confectionery company, M. J. Barnes was elected president. W. C. Clark vice-president and general manager, Charles L. Woodbury treasurer, Edward P. Woodbury secretary, Frances H. Barnes assistant treasurer. The capital stock of the company has just been increased to $20,000 to take care of their increasing business.

The report of E. N. Peck and C. S. Palmer, the committee on necrology of Stannard Post No. 2, G. A. R., shows that during the past year eleven members of Stannard Post have answered the last roll call. They are Homer W. Allen, Ezra J. Maxham, William W. Henry, George D. Chase, Lucius Bigelow, James B. Williams, Joel W. Thomas and John Lessor.

At the annual stockholders' meeting of the Lake George Steamboat company, held at the general office of the company in the village of Lake George, N. Y., Tuesday, the following directors were elected to serve the ensuing year: L. F. Loeve, W. H. Williams and C. A. Walker of New York; C. E. Stone of Albany and J. A. Loomis of Burlington. The annual meeting of the directors for organization will be held later.

Herman P. Knickerbocker, son of Mrs. Nellie P. Knickerbocker of 37 Orchard terrace, left yesterday for Annapolis, Md., where he will join the entering class of the United States Naval Academy. Mr. Knickerbocker was a member of the freshman class at the University of Vermont and an honor graduate of the Burlington high school in 1915. He received his appointment from Senator W. P. Dickinson.

Miss Madeline Knout of New Haven, Conn., formerly of this city, and William F. Hildebrand of New Haven were married at six o'clock Monday evening in New Haven. Following the ceremony dinner was served to the immediate family. The bride wore white tulle and carried white roses and sweet peas. The

MEDICINES, LIKE MEN

Have Character—Appearance, Quality, Merit, Results.

The first favorable impression made by Hood's Sarsaparilla is confirmed by continued use. It is a harmonious combination of compatible ingredients, perfect pharmaceutically—that is, it is the finest product of most skillful pharmacy. And in the therapeutic value or power to cure it is one of the best medicines America has ever produced.

On the practical side, which of course is the most important to you, Hood's Sarsaparilla for forty years has been demonstrating its curative power in relieving complaints arising from impure blood, low state of health, poor digestion, inactive kidneys and liver.

For your humors, or for rheumatism, weak stomach, loss of appetite, that tired feeling—take Hood's Sarsaparilla. It will do you good. (Adv.)

Home decorations were very attractive, pink sweet peas and greens being used. Mr. and Mrs. Hildebrand will reside at 1009 Chapel street in New Haven.

Vital statistics for the city of Burlington as filed at the city clerk's office show that during the month of May there were 66 births and 38 deaths. Of the births 36 were males and 30 females. The youngest mother was seventeen and her child was her second. The oldest mother was 44 years of age and the child her sixteenth.

One mother, 38 years of age, had her eleventh child. The oldest person to die was 75 years of age. Twenty marriage licenses were granted during May.

A reception was given Thursday afternoon from four to six o'clock by Mrs. W. B. McKillip and her daughter, Mrs. F. W. McKillip, at the residence of Mrs. McKillip at 230 South Union street.

About 200 attended. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers of many kinds. In the dining-room the color scheme was pink, the centerpiece for the table being of carnations. Mrs. M. D. Chittenden, Mrs. I. C. Smart, Mrs. H. R. Watkins and Mrs. A. E. Gates poured, and they were assisted by several other ladies.

The apparatus used in the fish hatchery which has been run under the direction of H. N. Rowley, county fish and game warden for Chittenden county, has been taken down and carefully packed in the shed of the Champlain Transportation company for use next spring. In all about 100,000 small walleyed pike have been hatched and planted in various parts of the lake, the hatchery being run under the auspices of the State and government.

The hatch was an exceptionally successful one and the hatchery will probably be a permanent institution in Burlington.

Israel Katz of 122 Archibald street and Miss Bertha Kaplan of 101 Hyde street were married Friday afternoon at five o'clock at the Archibald street synagogue by Rabbi H. Popkin. They were married under the canopy of good luck, according to the Jewish custom. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Morris Katz, father and mother of the groom, and by Max Kaplan, uncle of the bride. In the evening a wedding supper was served at the home of the groom to the members of the family. Mr. and Mrs. Katz will reside at 122 Archibald street.

Earle E. Wilson, A. M., principal of the Rogers School, Stamford, Conn., received the Ph. D. degree from New York University this week Wednesday, June 7. Mr. Wilson was principal of the Wells River high school during the years 1904-1905, of the Fair Haven high school in 1906-1907 and of the South Royalton high school in 1907-1910. He was superintendent of the White River Valley Union school district, which is made up of the towns of Bethel, Royalton, South Royalton and Tunbridge in 1910-1913. Mr. Wilson is a native of Corinth.

George W. Marks has just received a letter from his brother, an officer with the Canadian troops in France, stating that the French and English armies in and about Verdun have met the German attacks successfully in every particular; that the morale of the troops is excellent, but the German troops are showing serious effect of the havoc made by the French guns in the repeated attempts of the German infantry to advance under cover of their own guns, so that in many instances the men now have to be driven into action by their officers.

A meeting of committees from all of the French societies in this city was held at three o'clock Sunday afternoon at St. John's hall to make final arrangements for the celebration of St. John's day, which occurs on Saturday, June 24. On that evening there will be a strawberry festival at St. John's hall. On Sunday, following, the societies will march from their halls to St. John's hall on Elmwood avenue, where they will form in line and proceed to St. John's hall to attend in a body the high mass at 10:30 o'clock.

On Wednesday, June 25, they will attend again for an excursion and basket picnic to St. Albans Bay.

The next reunion of the Ninth Vermont Regimental association will be held in the rooms of Stannard Post No. 2, G. A. R., on July 13, the first day of the reunion of the Society of the Army of the Potomac, which will be held in this city on July 13 and 14. It is expected that all of the Vermont regiments which served in the Army of the Potomac in the War of the Rebellion will hold their reunions here during these two days. From present indications there will be a large gathering of soldiers and their families in Burlington at that time, requests for reservations already coming in to the hotels in numbers.

Damage to the amount of several hundreds of dollars was done at the Barker farm on North avenue Sunday morning by a chimney fire. A still alarm was telephoned to fire station one in this city at 9:23 o'clock. The fire was in an old chimney which was burning from the bottom to the top when the apparatus arrived. The damage was done by the creosote and by the chemical, nearly all of the chemical in the tank on the truck being used. The automobile truck was called to 22 School street. Clothes hanging near a stove to dry became ignited. They were thrown into the yard before the department arrived and no damage of consequence resulted.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Vermont is to entertain the council of the General society on June 23 and 24 at Burlington. There will be a council meeting at the society rooms, at 156 College street, at 9:30 o'clock Friday, June 23. Lunch will be served at one o'clock. An automobile tour of Burlington will be made at 2:30 o'clock. A dinner will be served at the Ethel Allen club at 8:30 o'clock on Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock there will be a boatride on the Chateaugay, going north to Valcour island, Crab island, Plattsburgh bay, and other historic places. A buffet lunch will be served at 12:30 o'clock, afterwards going south to Fort Cassin, stopping an hour and a half at Fort Ticonderoga. The return to Burlington will be made late in the afternoon. B. N. Clark, secretary, has sent invitations to the president and members of all of the patriotic societies, asking their attendance, on the boatride June 24.

The sewer changes at the intersection of Park and North Bend streets, made necessary by the recent caving of North Bend street at that point have been completed by Superintendent of Streets J. W. Coffey, and the sewer at the head of Park street closed so that no water can escape into the bank and cause any further undermining. The course which it seems most probable that the street commissioners will pursue with regard to repairs at this point, is to build a retaining wall against the North Bend street bank and then change the direction of North Bend street and build it around the chasm.

This would involve the purchase of a vacant lot on the northeast corner of Park and North Bend streets and the premises on the opposite corner, 24 Park street, but would be more economical than attempting to fill the excavation.

The quarterly bulletin of the Vermont State board of health, just from the press, has an exhaustive review of the epidemics of poliomyelitis, or infantile paralysis, which raged over this State in 1914 and 1915, written by Charles S. Caverly, M. D., president of the board of health.

The bulletin also contains a comparison of two outbreaks of smallpox which occurred in Andover in two villages of about the same size at the same time. In one, all agencies and people working in harmony, the epidemic was over in about six weeks, while in the other, where opposite action was taken, the epidemic still prevails.

There is also an article on the above question. A program of the 18th annual school of instruction, which will be held in Burlington July 5 to 8, inclusive, with the program of speakers as far as they have been secured, is given. There is also an article on "Hay Fever Weeds and How They May Be Recognized." The bulletin closes with the usual report of the examinations made at the State laboratory.

The quarterly bulletin of the Vermont State board of health, just from the press, has an exhaustive review of the epidemics of poliomyelitis, or infantile paralysis, which raged over this State in 1914 and 1915, written by Charles S. Caverly, M. D., president of the board of health.

The bulletin also contains a comparison of two outbreaks of smallpox which occurred in Andover in two villages of about the same size at the same time. In one, all agencies and people working in harmony, the epidemic was over in about six weeks, while in the other, where opposite action was taken, the epidemic still prevails.

There is also an article on the above question. A program of the 18th annual school of instruction, which will be held in Burlington July 5 to 8, inclusive, with the program of speakers as far as they have been secured, is given. There is also an article on "Hay Fever Weeds and How They May Be Recognized." The bulletin closes with the usual report of the examinations made at the State laboratory.

The quarterly bulletin of the Vermont State board of health, just from the press, has an exhaustive review of the epidemics of poliomyelitis, or infantile paralysis, which raged over this State in 1914 and 1915, written by Charles S. Caverly, M. D., president of the board of health.

The bulletin also contains a comparison of two outbreaks of smallpox which occurred in Andover in two villages of about the same size at the same time. In one, all agencies and people working in harmony, the epidemic was over in about six weeks, while in the other, where opposite action was taken, the epidemic still prevails.

There is also an article on the above question. A program of the 18th annual school of instruction, which will be held in Burlington July 5 to 8, inclusive, with the program of speakers as far as they have been secured, is given. There is also an article on "Hay Fever Weeds and How They May Be Recognized." The bulletin closes with the usual report of the examinations made at the State laboratory.

The quarterly bulletin of the Vermont State board of health, just from the press, has an exhaustive review of the epidemics of poliomyelitis, or infantile paralysis, which raged over this State in 1914 and 1915, written by Charles S. Caverly, M. D., president of the board of health.

The bulletin also contains a comparison of two outbreaks of smallpox which occurred in Andover in two villages of about the same size at the same time. In one, all agencies and people working in harmony, the epidemic was over in about six weeks, while in the other, where opposite action was taken, the epidemic still prevails.

There is also an article on the above question. A program of the 18th annual school of instruction, which will be held in Burlington July 5 to 8, inclusive, with the program of speakers as far as they have been secured, is given. There is also an article on "Hay Fever Weeds and How They May Be Recognized." The bulletin closes with the usual report of the examinations made at the State laboratory.

The quarterly bulletin of the Vermont State board of health, just from the press, has an exhaustive review of the epidemics of poliomyelitis, or infantile paralysis, which raged over this State in 1914 and 1915, written by Charles S. Caverly, M. D., president of the board of health.

The bulletin also contains a comparison of two outbreaks of smallpox which occurred in Andover in two villages of about the same size at the same time. In one, all agencies and people working in harmony, the epidemic was over in about six weeks, while in the other, where opposite action was taken, the epidemic still prevails.

There is also an article on the above question. A program of the 18th annual school of instruction, which will be held in Burlington July 5 to 8, inclusive, with the program of speakers as far as they have been secured, is given. There is also an article on "Hay Fever Weeds and How They May Be Recognized." The bulletin closes with the usual report of the examinations made at the State laboratory.

The quarterly bulletin of the Vermont State board of health, just from the press, has an exhaustive review of the epidemics of poliomyelitis, or infantile paralysis, which raged over this State in 1914 and 1915, written by Charles S. Caverly, M. D., president of the board of health.

The bulletin also contains a comparison of two outbreaks of smallpox which occurred in Andover in two villages of about the same size at the same time. In one, all agencies and people working in harmony, the epidemic was over in about six weeks, while in the other, where opposite action was taken, the epidemic still prevails.

There is also an article on the above question. A program of the 18th annual school of instruction, which will be held in Burlington July 5 to 8, inclusive, with the program of speakers as far as they have been secured, is given. There is also an article on "Hay Fever Weeds and How They May Be Recognized." The bulletin closes with the usual report of the examinations made at the State laboratory.

The quarterly bulletin of the Vermont State board of health, just from the press, has an exhaustive review of the epidemics of poliomyelitis, or infantile paralysis, which raged over this State in 1914 and 1915, written by Charles S. Caverly, M. D., president of the board of health.

The bulletin also contains a comparison of two outbreaks of smallpox which occurred in Andover in two villages of about the same size at the same time. In one, all agencies and people working in harmony, the epidemic was over in about six weeks, while in the other, where opposite action was taken, the epidemic still prevails.

There is also an article on the above question. A program of the 18th annual school of instruction, which will be held in Burlington July 5 to 8, inclusive, with the program of speakers as far as they have been secured, is given. There is also an article on "Hay Fever Weeds and How They May Be Recognized." The bulletin closes with the usual report of the examinations made at the State laboratory.

The quarterly bulletin of the Vermont State board of health, just from the press, has an exhaustive review of the epidemics of poliomyelitis, or infantile paralysis, which raged over this State in 1914 and 1915, written by Charles S. Caverly, M. D., president of the board of health.

The bulletin also contains a comparison of two outbreaks of smallpox which occurred in Andover in two villages of about the same size at the same time. In one, all agencies and people working in harmony, the epidemic was over in about six weeks, while in the other, where opposite action was taken, the epidemic still prevails.

There is also an article on the above question. A program of the 18th annual school of instruction, which will be held in Burlington July 5 to 8, inclusive, with the program of speakers as far as they have been secured, is given. There is also an article on "Hay Fever Weeds and How They May Be Recognized." The bulletin closes with the usual report of the examinations made at the State laboratory.

The quarterly bulletin of the Vermont State board of health, just from the press, has an exhaustive review of the epidemics of poliomyelitis, or infantile paralysis, which raged over this State in 1914 and 1915, written by Charles S. Caverly, M. D., president of the board of health.

The bulletin also contains a comparison of two outbreaks of smallpox which occurred in Andover in two villages of about the same size at the same time. In one, all agencies and people working in harmony, the epidemic was over in about six weeks, while in the other, where opposite action was taken, the epidemic still prevails.

There is also an article on the above question. A program of the 18th annual school of instruction, which will be held in Burlington July 5 to 8, inclusive, with the program of speakers as far as they have been secured, is given. There is also an article on "Hay Fever Weeds and How They May Be Recognized." The bulletin closes with the usual report of the examinations made at the State laboratory.

The quarterly bulletin of the Vermont State board of health, just from the press, has an exhaustive review of the epidemics of poliomyelitis, or infantile paralysis, which raged over this State in 1914 and 1915, written by Charles S. Caverly, M. D., president of the board of health.

The bulletin also contains a comparison of two outbreaks of smallpox which occurred in Andover in two villages of about the same size at the same time. In one, all agencies and people working in harmony, the epidemic was over in about six weeks, while in the other, where opposite action was taken, the epidemic still prevails.

There is also an article on the above question. A program of the 18th annual school of instruction, which will be held in Burlington July 5 to 8, inclusive, with the program of speakers as far as they have been secured, is given. There is also an article on "Hay Fever Weeds and How They May Be Recognized." The bulletin closes with the usual report of the examinations made at the State laboratory.

ORDER OF EASTERN STAR

Grand Chapter of Vermont in Annual Session.

Reception by Temple Chapter of Burlington Last Evening Enjoyed by Visiting Members to the Number of 200.

The 4th annual session of the Grand Chapter of Vermont, Order of Eastern Star, was opened last evening by a reception given by Temple Chapter, No. 75, of this city, at their rooms in the Masonic Temple to the visiting members. The reception was attended by about 200, and was a very pleasing social event.

The guests were received by the worthy matron of Temple Chapter, Mrs. A. E. Wade, the worthy patron of the same chapter, C. J. Broadbent, and the following grand chapter officers: Patron, C. S. Howard of Bellows Falls; matron, Mrs. Laura B. Cole of Bennington; associate matron, E. H. Frosty of Montpelier; associate matron, Florence K. Fleve of Hartford; conductress, Mrs. Martha Stoddard of Charlotte; associate conductress, Mrs. Anna Evans of Burlington; secretary, Mrs. Olive J. Stowell of Brattleboro; treasurer, Mrs. E. F. Fraser of Windsor; lecturer, Mrs. Nellie Smythe of St. Johnsbury; pro tem, chaplain, Mrs. E. F. Horner of St. Johnsbury for Mrs. Hattie Richmond of Northfield who was unable to be present; marshal, Mrs. Addie F. Allen of Milton; organist, Mrs. Anna McBride of Winoski; warder, Mrs. Philip Burdett of Springfield; sentinel, Frank Nichols of Chester; Adah, Mrs. Mary J. Coyle of Windsor; Ruth, Mrs. Hazel T. Willey of Orleans; Esther, Mrs. E. H. Howard of Bellows Falls; Martha, Mrs. Grace H. Freeman of Rutland; Electa, Miss Fanny Beck of St. Johnsbury.

There were also present in the lodge C. H. Darling, grand master of the grand lodge of Masons for the State of Vermont, H. H. Ross, grand secretary, Mrs. Blakely, associate grand matron of the New Hampshire Chapter of Eastern Star, Mrs. Ella B. French, past grand matron of Michigan.

A musical program was rendered by an orchestra of several pieces and Mrs. Ella Nichols Pitts of this city rendered several pleasing vocal selections.

Following the reception the officers of Frances E. Stevens Chapter, No. 54, presented the addenda entitled "The Pilgrimage in the blue lodge rooms of the temple."

BUSINESS SESSION TO-DAY.

The first business meeting of the annual session of the Eastern Star rooms at nine o'clock this morning. Following the reception of grand officers by the officers of Temple Chapter, will come the opening ceremonies to be followed by the various addresses of welcome and responses. The annual addresses of the grand matron and grand patron will also be given at this session. The visitors will also give the work of a day when quite young, and followed it practically all his life. His marriage to Sarah E. Reeves of Winoski took place in 1909, when he was employed at the Woolen mills in Winoski. Later, they moved to Utica, N. Y., where he was overseer of a dye house for four years. A little over a year ago he came to Burlington and opened the drug store at the corner of Church and College streets. Two months ago he was called to Ware, Mass., as boss dyer of a large woolen mill and moved there with his family, leaving L. Schultz as manager of the drug store. He had been in Ware but a few weeks when he became ill and was taken to New York, where he was operated upon for cancer of the rectum and removed what from the operation he was brought to Burlington. He was unconscious 9 hours before the end, which came at his home at 55 Greene street. He leaves his wife; two sons, Allen Warren and Horace Irwin; and one daughter, Hazel Mary; a brother, Joseph L. Manter of Plymouth, Mass.; and a sister, Mrs. Thomas Piercy of Rutland, Mass. His sister and brother were called to Burlington Friday when Mr. Manter's condition became critical.

The funeral services were held at three o'clock Monday afternoon at the home, and the interment was made in Green Mount cemetery.

Ernest Chausse.

Ernest Chausse died very suddenly Saturday evening in a hack automobile, in which he was being taken to his home on Hyde street, following a "fading" spell on Church street. Mr. Chausse had suffered with heart trouble for some time.

Mr. Chausse was taken with a fainting spell on Church street about nine o'clock and was taken into Bellows Falls drug store. Dr. George M. Sabin was summoned and restorative that were administered, but he was unable to take him to the home of his father-in-law, Joseph R. Lauson on Hyde street, where he resided. He was placed into the automobile and carried on a conversation with Dr. Sabin, who accompanied him. At the corner of North and Hyde streets he spoke last, informing the driver that he should be as well known to people generally as they are by physicians, is the dependence of the brain for its proper action on the vitality of the blood. If this is impaired, the blood affords an imperfect stimulus to the brain and, as a necessary consequence, languor and inactivity of the entire nervous system follows, and a tendency to headache or fatigue makes its appearance.

It is probable that no other medicine ever produced has done more in the way of revitalizing the blood, making it pure and rich, than Hood's Sarsaparilla, which should certainly be given a trial where there is any reason to believe that the blood is defective in quality or deficient in quantity.

MARRIED AT BURLINGTON.

A very pretty wedding took place Monday morning at St. Columba's Church, Arlington, when George Arthur O'Brien of Ticonderoga, N. Y., and Miss Mary Madeline Walker, formerly of Burlington, were married. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Walker, formerly of this city. The bride was gowned in white silk voile and carried a bouquet of white and pink flowers. Her bridesmaid was Miss Kate Delaney, who wore a light blue silk gown and carried white carnations. The best man was Roy Walker, brother of the bride. The ushers were Edward Walker and Arthur Rock, cousins of the bride. After the ceremony a dinner was served at the home of the bride.

Mrs. Anna Shannon.

Mrs. Anna Shannon, widow of John Shannon, died yesterday at 16 Bond street, at six o'clock. She had been in failing health since last November and her death was due to troubles incident to old age. She was 82 years of age on May 1. Mrs. Shannon was born in County Sligo, Ireland, and came to this country when she was a young girl. She was a devoted wife and mother, and was well known to many of the old residents of Burlington. She was a member of the St. Columba's church and was a very active worker in the church. She was a very kind and generous person, and was always ready to help those in need. She was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community.

Mrs. Shannon was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community. She was a very kind and generous person, and was always ready to help those in need. She was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community.

Mrs. Shannon was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community. She was a very kind and generous person, and was always ready to help those in need. She was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community.

Mrs. Shannon was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community. She was a very kind and generous person, and was always ready to help those in need. She was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community.

Mrs. Shannon was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community. She was a very kind and generous person, and was always ready to help those in need. She was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community.

Mrs. Shannon was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community. She was a very kind and generous person, and was always ready to help those in need. She was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community.

Mrs. Shannon was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community. She was a very kind and generous person, and was always ready to help those in need. She was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community.

Mrs. Shannon was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community. She was a very kind and generous person, and was always ready to help those in need. She was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community.

Mrs. Shannon was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community. She was a very kind and generous person, and was always ready to help those in need. She was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community.

Mrs. Shannon was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community. She was a very kind and generous person, and was always ready to help those in need. She was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community.

Mrs. Shannon was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community. She was a very kind and generous person, and was always ready to help those in need. She was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community.

Mrs. Shannon was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community. She was a very kind and generous person, and was always ready to help those in need. She was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community.

Mrs. Shannon was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community. She was a very kind and generous person, and was always ready to help those in need. She was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community.

Mrs. Shannon was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community. She was a very kind and generous person, and was always ready to help those in need. She was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community.

Mrs. Shannon was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community. She was a very kind and generous person, and was always ready to help those in need. She was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community.

Mrs. Shannon was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community. She was a very kind and generous person, and was always ready to help those in need. She was a very good friend to all who knew her, and her death is a great loss to the community.

Thomas, and James of Burlington, William of St. Albans, Frank of Ardley, N. Y., John of Florence, N. C., and Mrs. J. C. Ryan of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Shannon was the last member of a family of seven children. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Theophile Lavallee.

Theophile Lavallee died at